

HFN (Online)
March 16, 2016

Textiles Market Report: Cool Looks, Cool Sleep

Contemporary designs on offer, along with products to improve a night's sleep

Pendleton's Boro Patchwork bed ensemble

Home Source's new line of Egyptian cotton towels

NEW YORK—Day Two of the New York Home Fashions Market brought another group of new product introductions to retailers visiting the Manhattan showrooms.

Contemporary is a new focus for Pendleton Woolen Mills. Known for its heritage designs on wool blankets, the company has broadened its design capabilities to include such looks as the geometric pattern seen on its Boro Patchwork bed ensemble ... Home Source International is turning the spotlight on its growing manufacturing presence in the United States. Among new products, the company debuted a six-color collection of Egyptian cotton towels, which coordinate with its existing line of Egyptian cotton rugs .. Cool (as in a cooler night's sleep) is a major theme at Hollander's showroom, where the company highlighted its offerings in hydrogel and phased-change fabric, both of which offer a cooler night's sleep. The company also debuted 100 percent organic cotton on all of its brands of comforters and bed pillows ... Oriental Weavers went in two color directions at market with its rug collections. Bright, bold colors are the main theme in Joli, a group of traditional, abstract and global looks in vibrant colors using a space-dyed yarn, while Serena goes with neutrals in traditional and global ikat designs.

5W

A design from Tayse's new Expressions line

WestPoint Home is presenting an expanded collection of quilts, a category in which the company established itself with its acquisition of Nostalgia Home Fashions last year. It also launched its collection of bedding and beach towels under its license with London-based designer Amy Sia ... In its first permanent showroom at 295 Fifth Avenue, Tayse unveiled Expressions, a printed line of rugs with vibrant colors; and Kensington, a more traditional line using frisee yarn ... Pacific Coast Feather has expanded its Feather Best program, featuring basic bedding filled with 100 percent feathers, with the Cozy Top collection. The new grouping features comforters and bed pillows with a fill of 50 percent down and 50 percent feathers ... Triangle Home Fashions now has a complete offering for the bedrooms of children aged from seven to 15.

These include children's chairs, bean-bag chairs, quilts, decorative pillows and throws ... Micro Cotton is unveiling its Annur Cotton line of towels, which are woven with extra-long-staple Suvin cotton from India. These towels are very soft to the touch and highly absorbent ... Mohawk Home used its Everstrand fiber, made of recycled plastic bottles, for its new Antiquities line of rugs, with such designs as tribal, erased and traditional designs. In simple designs and neutral color palette, the LA collection is sophisticated, in cream, gold, silver and brown colors.